

Employing BPL will cause tremendous interference in the amateur radio bands, seriously impairing our ability to provide emergency communications in time of disasters. This has been a long-time public service provided by amateur radio operators, and we would be greatly hampered from fulfilling our currently recognized role as a valuable part of Homeland Security if you were to allow this technology to go forward. Please reconsider. Thank you.